A reminder that this weekend, we are asking for your commitment to the 2016 Bishop's Fund Annual Appeal. In a Holy Year of Mercy we are all thankful for all of the ways God has extended his mercy to us. One way to extend his mercy to others is by offering financial support to the far-reaching ministries funded by the diocese. Please remember, if pledges are made this weekend or next, there is a very large cost savings so that the diocese can be good stewards of gifts! If you are unable to make a commitment this year, you may also indicate this on your pledge card, but all are encouraged to participate. Next weekend will also serve as a second follow-up opportunity. Thank you!

Memorial Day Mass: Mass will be celebrated at St. Patrick's Cemetery on Monday, May 30th at 9:00 am. Please bring a folding chair and an umbrella for shade, if necessary. In the event of inclement weather, the Mass will be held in the church.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Our thanks are extended to the catechists who gave their time to teach in our Religious Education Program during this past year:

Melinda Malone, Paula Catherine, Renee Andrews, Annette Brown, Mary Schreindorfer, Nelly DePonte, Candace Dasaro, Mary Kay Dukas, Patti Reynolds, Desiree Branon, Barbara Churchill, John Bouchard, Beth Branon, Al Capone.

Diocesan Pastoral Council: Bishop Coyne has decided that the Diocese should once again organize a Diocesan Pastoral Council. This council which existed in the past was discontinued years ago. The first meeting of this new council, whose purpose is to help the Bishop discern the greatest issues of concern to the Diocese, was held on Saturday, May 7, in Vergennes. The new council mirrors a parish council and the membership will number around 35, composed of members from each deanery, as well as special appointments by the Bishop to represent special populations such as college students. Members will be surveyed to indicate three priorities, from which three-year plans will be formulated. The Code of Canon Law envisions the council as more of a 'vision' group than legislative and it will have a chair and a secretary. Thanks to Al Capone who will represent our parishes and the Franklin Deanery on the council. Future meetings will be held in September and December.

Totus Tuus Summer Catechetical Program: Registration is now available for the 2016 Totus Tuus Summer Program!
